Fortieth Annual Report
OF THE
Associate Board of Managers
OF
S. Luke's Home
FOR Indigent Christian Females.

AS the years roll round S. Luke's Home finds itself among the oldest of the Church Institutions of the City and the fact that any charity has existed for forty years in New York, where everything is so changeable, is proof that its foundations must have been well laid. Since 1852 S. Luke's Home has itself seen many changes and starting with a small parochial shelter for one or two homeless Christian women it has gradually grown to its present extent with its doors open to needy gentlewomen from all City parishes. Unfortunately the Home buildings do not extend as rapidly as the metropolitan jurisdiction, and we find ourselves unable to gratify all demands that are made upon us. City parishes now number about seventy-four and it is required only to send a representative to the Board and to contribute in some way, however small, to the support of the Home and they can rightly claim all its advantages.

Again we make our annual report stating, in the first place, that during the year six old people have been taken away, one of whom, Miss Johnson had been in the Home thirty-eight years, and another, Mrs. Wellings, eighteen years. Five have entered the Home.

We owe much to the thoughtful care of our corps of physicians who give their time and knowledge for the benefit of our old people who so often feel the infirmities of age pressing upon them. Through the continued kindness of a few friends the drives in the Central Park were even more frequent than last season; and, having learned the benefits to be gained by fresh air and exercise, the rides were anticipated by the old ladies from week to week with greater pleasure than ever before.

The long hot summer days were cheered with cooling ices and delicious fruits, thoughtful remembrances sent by those able to get away from the heated city. Never before have luxuries and comforts been so generously provided for the old people.

The clergy have continued their ministrations to the sick. Twice each month the Holy Communion has been administered to those unable to leave the house and in other extreme cases. Several times Evening Prayer has been read and addresses given. All of which has helped to preserve a Christian peace and charity in the house, which the judicious and careful management of the Matron and her assistant had established.

The plumbing of the house was found to need certain repairs and rearrangement according to more modern methods which occasioned considerable outlay of money, but everything was done as thoroughly and economically as possible by our painstaking Treasurer.

We now have three endowed rooms. Early in the year the first one, known as the St. Anna Room, was endowed by Mrs. J. J. Blodgett and her mother Mrs. Sherwood; this gift was very shortly followed by one from Miss Caroline Talman who, in lieu of the promised bequest, endowed the room known as the Caroline Talman Room. In June Trinity Corporation endowed the third room, called the Trinity Room. These rooms have been tastefully decorated and furnished and are enjoyed even by those not occupying them. The House Furnishing Committee were enabled to make these rooms more ornate than others in the Home through the thoughtful generosity of the endowers, who in the one instance gave $225, in the other $350, to paint and furnish the rooms; while $170 has been raised to set in order the Trinity Room.

The Annual income has been increased from $5,000 to $6,000.

The number of Church collections has increased from sixteen to twenty-one. Our current expenses have amounted to about $12,500, but I am sorry to state that we lacked about $580 of that sum, leaving us to begin the year with that burden upon us.

We have lost from our Board of Associate Managers two valuable members ; Mrs. W. A. Freeborn who was for many years and up to the time of her death much interested in the welfare of the Home ; and Mrs. S. Gregory Lines in whom we lost a generous friend and helper.

Thanking you for your consideration we submit this report for your approval.

JESSIE YOUNG.

Secretary of Board of Associate Managers.

October 20, 1891.
